WHY SHENZHEN?

Shenzhen is a major city in Southern China's Guangdong Province, situated less than an hour by train from Hong Kong. The area became China's first—and one of the most successful—Special Economic Zones. Shenzhen's modern cityscape is the result of a vibrant economy made possible by rapid foreign investment in late 1979, before which it was only a small village. Shenzhen is now considered to be one of the fastest-growing cities in the world. It is the place where many computer brands and smartphones (iPhone & iPad) are manufactured.
